

Woman in History Remembering Project

Douglas County Historical Society

Women in Agriculture 2020

Saturday March 21, 2020

This is your invitation to honor a woman for the Annual Women's History Remembering Project, held by the Douglas County Historical Society to commemorate Women's History Month.

This project was inspired by the National Women's History Project and the Nevada Women's History Project. It is designed to collect the stories of Douglas County women who might otherwise be forgotten. All information collected will become property of the Douglas County Historical Society and archived in the Van Sickle Research Library at the Carson Valley Museum and Cultural Center in Gardnerville and also with the Nevada Women's History Project in Reno.

Nomination Criteria

1. The woman you wish to honor must have lived in Douglas County
2. The woman you wish to honor shall have made a SIGNIFICANT AGRICULTURAL CONTRIBUTION to the quality of life in Douglas County.
3. One nomination per presenter.

The nominating forms must be accompanied by two (2) copies of a double-spaced typewritten biographical presentation, and two (2) 5" x 7" photographs for display and press releases. These will not be returned to you, but will be kept in the archives at the Douglas County Historical Society, along with the biographical presentation.

At the event, there will be an exhibit designed around each individual photo and memorabilia related to the honoree. Please bring item(s) to the museum by March 13th, to be included in the exhibit. Item(s) will be displayed at the discretion of DCHS Committee. Please check with committee regarding size of item(s) etc. One 12" x 14" poster of photographs can be accepted. All memorabilia will be exhibited for about one year. You will be notified when items(s) may be collected.

In nominating a Douglas County woman, you, or a person you designate, will be asked to make a 7 minute biographical presentation on the day of the event. If you have any questions please call the office at 775-782-2555.

The deadline for submission is February 28, 2020

You may submit your completed forms (typewritten biographical presentation, photo(s), and temporary custody receipt & photo release) by email, postal service or personal delivery to our office in the Carson Valley Museum & Cultural Center.
