Submit one entry form with each gingerbread house. There is no entry fee.

1. Houses may be either traditional (made of edible food substances) or non-traditional "Fantasy" houses consisting of anything from Legos, play dough, crocheted, origami, or whatever craft inspires your imagination!
2. Store bought gingerbread kits may be used but be sure to add additional decorative candies and features to personalize your entry!
3. Holiday decorations and figurines may be used to accessorize your entry.
4. Please limit your display board not to exceed 20" wide by 24" deep. If your group wished to do an oversized feature entry, please contact the coordinator.
5. Soft cake, soft frostings and other moist perishable items are not allowed.
6. LED or low wattage electric lights are allowed.

SETUP: Entries must be delivered to the Carson Valley Museum & Cultural Center, 1477 Highway 395 N, Gardnerville from Friday, November 27 through Friday, December 4 between the hours of 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. The museum is closed on Sunday. Bring your house and application to the museum. No advanced registration or fee is required.

EXHIBIT & RECEPTION: The exhibit opens 10:00 a.m. at the museum's Holiday Gala on Saturday, December 5 and runs through Saturday, December 19. An artisan's reception will be held on the 19th from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Ribbons will be awarded at the Artisan's Reception.

PICK UP: Entries may be taken home after the artisan's reception. All remaining entries must be picked up on or before Wednesday, December 30. The DCHS reserves the right to donate unclaimed entries.

Questions concerning the contest should be directed to Douglas County Historical Society at DCHS@HistoricNV.org or call 775-782-2555.

Activities happening at the museum's Holiday Gala on Saturday, December 5 also include:
