

Douglas County Historical Society's Old Time Baking Contest - Fall Pies High Noon! Saturday, November 7, 2020

Show off your culinary skills at our Old Time Pie Baking Contest at the Carson Valley Museum & Cultural Center. This is a fundraiser benefiting the Douglas County Historical Society.

Entry fee is $5.00 per pie, maximum of three pies per person.
After judging, the remaining slices of the pies will be sold as part of the DCHS fundraiser.

CONTEST RULES AND REQUIREMENTS

The main focus of this contest is apple, pumpkin and pecan pies; however, all types of Fall Pies are welcome.

Pies will be judged by the Douglas County Historical Society on their overall appearance and taste. Certificates of award be presented to the winning pies.

Entry fee and forms must be returned to the Carson Valley Museum & Cultural Center by 3:00 p.m., Monday, November 2.

Douglas County Historical Society is not responsible for pie containers. Please put your name and contact number on the bottom of the container.

Submitted pies become the property of the historical society and slices will be offered for sale to attendees.

Pies must be brought to the Carson Valley Museum & Cultural between the hours of 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Saturday, November 7. Pies that require refrigeration cannot be accepted.

Participants give permission to have photos taken during the contest and acknowledge its usage for by the Douglas County Historical Society for promotional purposes.

Judging will begin at High Noon. Need not be present to win.
